Subject: RE: Hack/Milford Deposition

Mr. Cronkhite,

I would appreciate the courtesy of being contacted in advance of scheduling deposition and consideration of pre-existing scheduling conflicts. I am lead counsel and need to attend certain deposition. As you know, the civility principles adopted by the court require you to accommodate previously schedule commitment. I have been schedule to be I Puerto Rico for a wedding for months and my return flight is not scheduled until December 18. On December 19 I have a flight to Colorado for depositions and will be occupied the remainder of the week.

There is no urgency in taking depositions given that the Hacks are living in their home and continue to access their property as they did previously. If you persist in scheduling the deposition knowing that I am unavailable, I will be required to seek a protective order.

Jim,

I am proceeding with the deposition on December 18. You are invited to attend or have one of Defendants' other three attorneys with appearances on file attend.
